Absolute Title Raises $6,000 for BJ Cirnigliaro Memorial Fund During Day of Giving

Funds support New Hampshire nonprofit organizations

Bedford, N.H. (October 29, 2026) – Absolute Title announces that it raised $6,000 for the BJ Cirnigliaro Memorial Fund during the company's Day of Giving in August. The BJ Cirigliano Fund was created in early 2021 by Absolute Title to support local nonprofit organizations in honor of BJ Cirnigliaro. Funds raised during the Day of Giving will be allocated to organizations under the direction of a dedicated committee of Absolute employees, chaired by Lisa Capicchioni, senior loan officer at Guild Mortgage, and a longtime friend of BJ.

Absolute Title created the memorial fund to honor BJ, a longtime employee who unexpectedly passed away in 2020. BJ was one of the company's first employees and served as senior vice president, opening the company's office in Portsmouth in May 2019. The BJ Cirnigliaro Memorial Fund is administered by the NH Charitable Foundation and seeks to support suicide prevention programs, animal shelters and humane societies, and mental health, LGBTQ, and home ownership support organizations.

"It is our honor to remember BJ through this fund and to support organizations that meant so much to her. Her legacy lives on with each of us at Absolute Title," said Matthew Neuman, Esq., managing member of Absolute Title. "This year was our first Day of Giving event – we intend to continue this effort in the years ahead. We are grateful to everyone who donated and are truly proud of how we joined together in support of our community's nonprofits in BJ's memory."

Absolute Title is the region's leading title company with New Hampshire locations in Bedford, Concord, Conway, and Portsmouth as well as in South Portland and Rockland, Maine. For more information about Absolute Title, visit www.absolutetitle.com.
