Absolute Title's BJ Cirnigliaro Memorial Fund Makes $10,000 in Contributions to Five Local Organizations

Bedford, N.H. (November 4, 2021) – The BJ Cirnigliaro Memorial Fund, which was created in early 2021 by Absolute Title, has made its first contributions, totaling $10,000, to five local organizations – the NH Chapter of the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention, Friends of the Manchester Animal Shelter, Goffstown High School, St. Vincent de Paul and Families in Transition.

Absolute Title, the region's leading title company with locations in Bedford, Concord and Portsmouth, created the memorial fund to honor its longtime employee, BJ Cirnigliaro, who unexpectedly passed away last year. BJ was one of the company's first employees and as Senior Vice President, opened the company's office in Portsmouth in May 2019.

The recipients of this year's donations were selected by a committee of Absolute Title employees, chaired by Lisa Capicchioni, senior loan officer at Residential Mortgage Services, and a longtime friend of BJ. This year's donations include:

- $2,500 to the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (New Hampshire Chapter) to support their work in the state
- $2,500 to Goffstown High School to provide scholarship support to a student pursuing a degree in mental health-related fields
- $2,500 to Friends of the Manchester Animal Shelter for general support
- $1,250 to St. Vincent de Paul in Hampton, New Hampshire, to support its food pantry and community kitchen
- $1,250 to Families in Transition to support its food programs

The BJ Cirnigliaro Memorial Fund is administered by the NH Charitable Foundation and seeks to support suicide prevention programs, animal shelters and humane societies, and mental health, LGBTQ, and home ownership support organizations.

“BJ was an incredible person and colleague. She had a vibrant spirit and will forever have a legacy in the title industry in New Hampshire,” said Matthew Neuman, Esq., managing member of Absolute Title. “The organizations selected by the committee will help carry the memory of BJ Cirnigliaro, as they represent causes that were dear to her heart.”
