Absolute Title Adds New Maine Location

Title industry professional Lindsey Grant to lead Rockland office

Bedford, NH & Rockland, ME (March 16, 2026) – Just weeks after opening their new, permanent location in South Portland, Maine, Absolute Title and the Law Office of Matthew W. Neuman announce the addition of their Midcoast office in Rockland. The company has brought on Lindsey Grant as Vice President of Maine Business Development to lead the new office. This is Absolute Title’s seventh location in Northern New England.

“We are thrilled to be a part of the Rockland community and are pleased to welcome Lindsey. She is a respected and experienced title professional and we’re fortunate to have her on the Absolute team,” said Matthew Neuman, Esq., owner of Absolute Title. “Lindsey excels at optimizing title operations within a law firm, which is important to us as an attorney-led title company.”

Grant brings valuable experience in business operations, closings and administrative support, and has deep ties to the region. She sits on the Mid-Coast Board of REALTORS Penbay Council fundraising committee and is also the owner of Sacred Souls Alchemy, a holistic healing practice. She will be supporting the Midcoast and Central Maine regions.

“I’m grateful for the opportunity to help Absolute Title expand in Maine,” said Grant. “This area is a special place where people are enthusiastic about putting down roots and building lives. It’s rewarding to play a role in that process with a company that values community like Absolute does.”

The Rockland office is located at 315 Main Street, Suite 202. Absolute Title has been handling closings in Maine since 2007. The company was founded in 2005 in Bedford, New Hampshire, and has offices in Concord, Portsmouth, and Conway, New Hampshire, as well as Lowell, Massachusetts, and South Portland, Maine.
